Canada Customs Audit Seminar

What to Expect when Canada Customs Knocks at Your Door

If your business is exporting or importing goods into Canada, whether you are a Resident or a Non-Resident Importer (NRI), you should be aware that at some point, you are likely to be selected for an audit process by Canada Border Services Agency. Pacific Customs Brokers is offering a seminar on evaluating your understanding of compliance with Customs regulations. This seminar will focus on the differences between voluntary and enforced compliance, the term "reason to believe", the potential cost risks of non-compliance, and best practices. This session will be of interest to all Importers, Non-Resident or Resident Business Owners, Controllers, Operational and Compliance Managers, Purchasing Managers and Logistics Managers. Included with your registration, Pacific Customs Brokers will provide a free 30 minute consultation at our office or by phone with advanced booking (bookings taken 14 days prior to date of seminar to a maximum 7 days following).

Speaker:

Carol Brown LCB, CCS, CTCS - Canadian Licensed Customs Broker, Certified Customs Specialist and Certified Trade Compliance Specialist with 30 years experience in the import / export industry.

Topics Include:

- ▶ Responsibilities of the Importer of Record
- ▶ Responsibilities of the Customs Broker
- ▶ CBSA Post-Release Verification Target List
- ▶ Most common areas of audit
- ▶ Risks of non-compliance
- ▶ Administrative Monetary Penalty System (AMPS)
- ▶ Record keeping
- ▶ PIP enrollment and the benefits
- ▶ Importer self-assessment
- ▶ Voluntary disclosure
- ▶ Best practices of compliant importers
